OUR FOUNDER: GAN ENG SENG

“Born in 1844 of humble origin, Gan Eng Seng did not have much opportunity for an education himself. Through sheer hard and honest work, he established himself in the business world and gave generously to provide free education to needy children.”

- From The Pictorial History of Gan Eng Seng School (2006)

Help your child transit well to GESS

Challenges faced by Sec 1 students

- New school environment
- New friends
- New syllabus
- New phase of life

Help your child transit well to GESS

- It is also an opportunity for students to form new, long-lasting friendships.
- Your child will learn new subjects, including Biology, Chemistry, Physics, Geography and History.
- School days will be long.
- In this phase of school, your child will enter the teenage years and go through physical, emotional and mental changes.
- Inform your child to let you know if he/she is having difficulties in school.
- Do contact form teachers if your child needs any transition support,

Gessian Brand of Education- Holistic development of every Gessian. !

For more details, attend the Meet-Parent-Session on
5 Jan (Fri) at 5 pm

Venue: GESS Hall

“That as many hands build a house,
So many hearts make a school.”

We look forward to meeting you soon!
Thank you
